Job Fair 2007 arrives in Windsor

(Toronto, September 19, 2007) Good news for Windsor, over 30 local and out of town companies will be on hand at Job Fair 2007 to be held on Wednesday, October 3rd at the University of Windsor, CAW Student Centre to recruit those who are looking for work.

Hundreds of jobs will be available in categories including: administration, office, accounting, collection, e-commerce, education, engineering, executive, finance, government, health care, hospitality, HR, insurance, marketing, production, retail, sales, science, trades, manufacturing, technology, many more....

The employers who are attending the event have lengthy wish lists for employees. Job Fair 2007 offers an opportunity for those who want a job and wish to hit the ground running, for the unemployed, those who are underemployed, and those who are looking for a career change, students, and anyone seriously looking for work, to network with potential employers and land work. This job fair is free and anyone can attend.

This event is results driven. Employers will find ready access to a skilled pool of potential employee. Employers will be able to meet talented employees face-to-face, and connect more quickly with serious candidates while dipping into the full-time, contract, summer, co-op, volunteer, and part-time pool of unemployed in one location.

Job Fair 2007 is inclusive to a series of employment events hosted by NAPP Canada to be held from 10:00am to 3:30 pm, October 3 at the University of Windsor, CAW Student Centre, 401 Sunset Avenue, Windsor, ON (Sunset & Wyandotte St)

Job Fair 2007 is in partnership with government programs: Greater Essex County District School Board, Career Development Services, South Essex Community Council, and Centennial College
